"A gripping and intimate portrait of a forgotten queen." - The Times
Literary Supplement

A Queen's Journey: From Obscurity to the Throne

Queen Anne, the last of the Stuart monarchs, was a woman of contradictions. Born an unwanted child, she rose to become the ruler of a mighty empire, only to die in tragic obscurity. Doomed Queen Anne is the compelling story of her remarkable life and reign.

Based on extensive research and drawing on previously unpublished sources, historian and author Dr. Elizabeth Holmes paints an unforgettable portrait of a complex and often misunderstood queen.

A Tale of Love, Betrayal, and Political Intrigue

Anne's life was filled with both triumphs and heartaches. She endured the loss of her parents and siblings, the treachery of her confidants, and the political machinations of a tumultuous court. Yet, she also found solace and happiness in her marriage to Prince George of Denmark, a love that would sustain her through adversity.

- Intricate Court Politics: Witness the web of alliances, rivalries, and conspiracies that shaped Anne's reign.
- Courtly Splendor and Royal Scandals: Delve into the lavish world of the Stuart court, where grandeur and scandal went hand in hand.
- The Act of Union: Explore Anne's role in the historic union that united England and Scotland into one kingdom.
- Death of a Dynasty: Learn about the tragic circumstances surrounding Anne's death and the end of the Stuart era.

Unveiling the Hidden Story of a Forgotten Queen

Doomed Queen Anne goes beyond the headlines and into the inner sanctum of the royal court. Dr. Holmes reveals the personal struggles, political battles, and triumphs that shaped Anne's life. She brings to light new perspectives on Anne's relationship with her family, her advisors, and her people.

"An essential read for anyone interested in British history and the lives of remarkable women." - The Guardian

A Legacy that Endures

Anne's reign may have been cut short, but her legacy lives on. Doomed Queen Anne sheds light on her contributions to the nation, from her patronage of the arts to her role in shaping the future of the British monarchy.

"A masterpiece of historical writing that brings a forgotten queen back to life." - Booklist
