Day 1: Adelaide to Port Augusta (320 km)

Begin your journey in Adelaide, South Australia's vibrant capital city. As you leave the urban hustle and bustle behind, the landscape transforms into rolling hills and picturesque vineyards. Make a stop at the charming town of Clare, renowned for its award-winning wineries. Continue north to Port Augusta, the gateway to the Flinders Ranges.

Witness the rugged beauty of the Flinders Ranges.

Day 2: Port Augusta to Coober Pedy (550 km)

Venture into the arid heart of Australia as you drive north through the Flinders Ranges National Park. Marvel at ancient rock formations, deep gorges, and abundant wildlife. Stop at Wilpena Pound, a natural amphitheater steeped in Aboriginal history. Continuing on, you'll reach Coober Pedy, the opal capital of the world.

Explore the fascinating underground world of Coober Pedy.

Day 3: Coober Pedy to Uluru (720 km)

Today's drive takes you through the vast Nullarbor Plain, a surreal and unforgiving landscape. Stop at the Roadhouse Cafe in Pimba to break up the journey. As you approach Uluru (Ayers Rock), the iconic sandstone monolith rises majestically before you.

Witness the mesmerizing sunset at Uluru.

Day 4: Uluru and Kata Tjuta (a full day)

Dedicate a full day to exploring the spiritual heart of Australia. Take a guided tour of Uluru, learning about its cultural significance to the Anangu people. Hike around the base of the monolith, capturing breathtaking views. In the afternoon, drive to Kata Tjuta (The Olgas), another awe-inspiring rock formation.

Discover the otherworldly beauty of Kata Tjuta.

Day 5: Uluru to Kings Canyon (330 km)

Continue your journey eastward to Kings Canyon, located within the Watarrka National Park. Embark on the challenging but rewarding Kings Canyon Rim Walk, offering panoramic views of the canyon's towering sandstone walls and lush vegetation.

Conquer the stunning Kings Canyon Rim Walk.

Day 6: Kings Canyon to Alice Springs (490 km)

Your final day on the road takes you through the picturesque West MacDonnell Ranges. Make a stop at Standley Chasm, a dramatic gorge with towering red cliffs. Continue to Alice Springs, the vibrant heart of Central Australia.

Explore the breathtaking West MacDonnell Ranges.
