When nine-year-old Lily Rose disappears from her suburban home, a nightmare unfolds for her parents. As the sun sets and the hours turn into days, hope dwindles, and a frantic search ensues. But as the investigation deepens, Detective Michael Foster uncovers a web of secrets, lies, and a chilling connection to a cold case that has haunted the community for years.

With each passing moment, the line between justice and vengeance blurs. The desperate search for Lily Rose transforms into a race against time, as those responsible will stop at nothing to keep her silence. Amidst the chaos, a shocking revelation emerges, threatening to shatter everything the town holds dear.

"Sleep Tight, Snow White" is not just another crime novel; it's a thought-provoking exploration of the darkness that can reside within us all. Jen Arena's masterful storytelling weaves a tapestry of suspense, delving into the depths of human nature and the lengths we'll go to protect those we love.

Jen Arena is an acclaimed author whose previous works have captivated readers worldwide. Known for her intricate plotting and unforgettable characters, Arena has once again crafted a thrilling masterpiece that will stay with you long after the final page is turned.
