Through her vivid and evocative writing, author Marcella Congiu invites you to relive her idyllic childhood in Tuscany, a time of innocence and carefree adventure. Born to Italian parents in rural England, Marcella's family decides to embark on a life-changing adventure and return to their ancestral homeland in the Tuscan countryside.

As Marcella adjust to her new life in Tuscany, she is immersed in a world of vibrant Italian culture, traditional village life, and stunning natural beauty. From the bustling markets of Florence to the quiet cobblestone streets of her village, she discovers the joys and challenges of belonging to two worlds.
